

INV METALS INC.

Mandate of the Compensation Committee

Purpose

The Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of INV Metals Inc. (the “Company”) is appointed by the Board to assist the Board in setting director and senior officer compensation and to develop and submit to the Board recommendations with respect to such other employee benefits as considered advisable. The Committee will be guided by the following principles:

- (a) to offer competitive compensation to attract, retain and motivate qualified executives in order for the Company to achieve the strategic plan and budget approved by the Board from time to time; and
- (b) to act in the best interests of the Company by being financially responsible.

Composition

1. The Committee shall be composed of two or more directors as designated by the Board from time to time.
2. The Chair of the Committee (the “Chair”) shall be designated by the Board or the Committee from among the members.
3. The composition of the Committee shall comply with all applicable securities laws, instruments, rules and policies and regulatory requirements (collectively “Applicable Laws”). Each member of the Committee shall be independent within the meaning of Applicable Laws.
4. Each member of the Committee shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the Board. The Board may fill vacancies in the Committee by appointment from among the members of the Board.

Meetings

5. The Committee shall meet at least twice in each financial year of the Company. The Committee shall meet otherwise at the discretion of the Chair or a majority of the members of the Committee, or as may be required by Applicable Laws.
6. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.
7. The Committee shall hold an in camera session without any senior officers present at each meeting of the Committee, unless such a session is not considered necessary by the members present.
8. The time and place at which meetings of the Committee are to be held, and the procedures at such meetings, will be determined from time to time by the Chair. A meeting of the Committee may be called by notice, which may be given by written notice, telephone, facsimile, email or other electronic communication at least 48 hours prior to the time of the meeting. However, no notice of a meeting shall be necessary if all of the members are present either in person or by means of telephone or web conference, or other communication equipment, or if those absent waive notice or otherwise signify their consent to the holding of such meeting.

9. Members may participate in a meeting of the Committee by means of telephone or web conference, or other communication equipment.
10. The Committee shall keep minutes of all meetings, which shall be available for review by the Board.
11. The Committee may appoint any individual, who need not be a member, to act as the secretary at any meeting.
12. The Committee may invite such other directors, senior officers and employees of the Company and such other advisors and persons as is considered advisable to attend at any meeting of the Committee.
13. Any matter to be determined by the Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Committee called for such purpose. Any action of the Committee may also be taken by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by all of the members of the Committee (including in counterparts, by facsimile or other electronic signature) and any such action shall be as effective as if it had been decided by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Committee called for such purpose.
14. The Committee shall report its determinations and recommendations to the Board.

Resources and Authority

15. The Committee has the authority to:
 - (a) engage, at the expense of the Company, independent counsel and other experts or advisors as is considered advisable, including compensation consultants to assist in determining appropriate compensation policies and levels, provided that any services to be provided by any such compensation consultants must be pre-approved by the Committee and, any services to be provided by any such compensation consultants at the request of the senior officers, must be pre-approved by the Chair;
 - (b) determine and pay the compensation for any independent counsel and other experts and advisors, including compensation consultants, retained by the Committee;
 - (c) conduct any investigation considered appropriate by the Committee; and
 - (d) request any senior officer or other employee of, or outside counsel for, the Company to attend any meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or independent counsel or other experts or advisors to, the Committee.

Responsibilities

- (a) ensuring that any required regulatory approval and shareholder approval is obtained for any compensation plan of the Company;
- (b) overseeing the compensation plans of the Company; and
- (c) determining those directors, Senior Executives, other employees and consultants of the Company who are entitled to participate in the compensation plans of the Company, the number of options, common shares or other securities of the Company allocated to each participant under each such plan, if any, and the time or times when the ownership of such options, common shares or other securities will vest for each participant, and administering all matters relating to any compensation plan of the Company, including any bonus plan, to which the Committee has been delegated authority pursuant to the terms of such plan or by the Board.

Compensation Disclosure

- 20. The Committee should review and make a recommendation to the Board with respect to any disclosure related to executive compensation in any management information circular of the Company for any meeting of the shareholders of the Company, including any executive compensation disclosure required by Applicable Laws.

Other Responsibilities

- 21. The Committee should review and assess the adequacy of this mandate from time to time and at least annually, and submit any proposed amendments to the Board for consideration.
- 22. The Committee should perform any other activities consistent with this mandate and Applicable Laws as the Committee or the Board considers advisable.

Chair

- 23. The Chair should:
 - (a) provide leadership to the Committee and oversee the functioning of the Committee;
 - (b) chair meetings of the Committee (unless not present), including in camera sessions, and report to the Board following each meeting of the Committee on the activities and any recommendations and decisions of the Committee, and otherwise at such times and in such manner as the Chair considers advisable;
 - (c) ensure that the Committee meets at least twice per financial year of the Company, and otherwise as is considered advisable;
 - (d) in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and the members of the Committee, establish dates for holding meetings of the Committee;
 - (e) set the agenda for each meeting of the Committee, with input from other members of the Committee, the Chairman of the Board, the Lead Director of the Board (the "Lead Director"), if any, and any other appropriate individuals;
 - (f) ensure that Committee materials are available to any director upon request;

- (g) act as a liaison, and maintain communication with, the Chairman of the Board, the Lead Director, if any, and the Board to co-ordinate input from the Board and to optimize the effectiveness of the Committee;
- (h) report annually to the Board on the role of the Committee and the effectiveness of the Committee in contributing to the effectiveness of the Board;
- (i) assist the members of the Committee to understand and comply with this mandate;
- (j) foster ethical and responsible decision making by the Committee;
- (k) together with the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, oversee the structure, composition and membership of, and activities delegated to, the Committee from time to time;
- (l) ensure appropriate information is provided to the Committee by the Senior Executives to enable the Committee to function effectively and comply with this mandate;
- (m) ensure that appropriate resources and expertise are available to the Committee;
- (n) ensure that the Committee considers whether any independent counsel or other experts or advisors retained by the Committee are appropriately qualified and independent in accordance with Applicable Laws;
- (o) facilitate effective communication between the members of the Committee and the Senior Executives;
- (p) attend, or arrange for another member of the Committee to attend, each meeting of the shareholders of the Company to respond to any questions from shareholders that may be asked of the Committee; and
- (q) perform such other duties as may be delegated to the Chair by the Committee or the Board from time to time.

Effective: October 16, 2018
